Receive Continuing Education: Tele-class Attendance may be applied towards several different professional CE requirements. Please check with your Professional State Board. Aromatherapy-type topics are approved for RA (Registered Aromatherapist) ARC (Aromatherapy Registration Council) renewal hours. All attendees that attend the full tele-class will receive a letter of attendance for their file.

Purchase Presentation Recordings: For those that can not attend a tele-class or miss the scheduled presentation, presentation recordings will be available for purchase on a CD format via the online store.

Note: Topics and dates/times are scheduled to change without notice.

Presentation may be cancelled due to technical difficulties, power outages or service provider problems, if this happens we will do our best to reschedule the presentation.

All tele-class presentation recordings are for educational purposes only and are not meant to prescribe or take the place of professional healthcare. The Holistic Animal Association assumes no responsibility for accuracy of the content or information provided by the presenter via the presentation, handout materials, power point presentations audio or written, etc. If you choose to use the information you must accept complete responsibility for doing so.

Attention Educators, Authors, Practitioners and Businesses:

If you are interested in presenting a tele-class on holistic healing arts topic and its benefits for animals, please use the online contact form to submit your request. If your topic is accepted to be part of the tele-class series schedule, you will be asked to provide the following with the Tele-class Presenter Application:

- Brief Bio (50 words or less)
- JPEG High Resolution Headshot
- Web-site and email address
- Presentation topic title/description in WORD Doc. (50-100 words) include bio
- Presentation Outline (Word Doc) and Handout/s for attendees (Word/PDF)

Your presentation information will be promoted on our web-site and in an e-news announcement, and we ask that Presenters promote their presentation date/information on their web-site, email list/s and social media groups.
